Any damage must be reported to the Parish Manager (manager@cathedral-abdn.org) as soon as possible. The hirer will make good any such damage or reimburse the cost of such damage. Therefore, it is strongly advised that said organisation/group has sufficient insurance cover.

5) The premises shall be left in the same state of cleanliness and furniture layout as when the booking commenced and any cleaning equipment used should be returned to the cleaner's store room.

6) When the kitchen is used for any food preparation it must be left in the same state of cleanliness as when the booking commenced. This will include cleaning of floor, work surfaces and any kitchen appliance which has been employed. The hirer must sign the kitchen cleaning log book at the end of the hire. Any group preparing food must be under the supervision of at least one person holding a valid Hygiene certificate.

7) The charges for use of the premises and equipment may be altered from time to time, but the hirer will be given prior notice of such changes.
