

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. Ps 24: 15-16

My eyes are always on the Lord,
for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me,
for I am alone and poor.

First reading

Exodus 3:1-8,13-15

'I AM has sent me to you'

Moses was looking after the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law priest of Midian. He led his flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in the shape of a flame of fire, coming from the middle of a bush. Moses looked; there was the bush blazing but it was not being burnt up. 'I must go and look at this strange sight,' Moses said, 'and see why the bush is not burnt.' Now the Lord saw him go forward to look, and God called to him from the middle of the bush. 'Moses, Moses!' he said. 'Here I am,' Moses answered. 'Come no nearer,' he said. 'Take off your shoes, for the place on which you stand is holy ground. I am the God of your fathers,' he said, 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' At this Moses covered his face, afraid to look at God.

And the Lord said, 'I have seen the miserable state of my people in Egypt. I have heard their appeal to be free of their slave-drivers. Yes, I am well aware of their sufferings. I mean to deliver them out of the hands of the Egyptians and bring them up out of that land to a land rich and broad, a land where milk and honey flow, the home of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites.'

Then Moses said to God, 'I am to go, then, to the sons of Israel and say to them, "The God of your fathers has sent me to you." But if they ask me what his name is, what am I to tell them?' And God said to Moses, 'I Am who I Am. This' he added 'is what you must say to the sons of Israel: "I Am has sent me to you."' And God also said to Moses, 'You are to say to the sons of Israel: "The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you." This is my name for all time; by this name I shall be invoked for all generations to come.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 102(103):1-4,6-8,11

The Lord is compassion and love.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings. R.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion. R.

The Lord does deeds of justice,
gives judgement for all who are oppressed.
He made known his ways to Moses and his deeds to Israel's sons. R.

The Lord is compassion and love,
slow to anger and rich in mercy.
For as the heavens are high above the earth
so strong is his love for those who fear him. R.

Second reading

1 Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12

The life of the people under Moses in the desert was written down to be a lesson for us

I want to remind you, brothers, how our fathers were all guided by a cloud above them and how they all passed through the sea. They were all baptised into Moses in this cloud and in this sea; all ate the same spiritual food and all drank the same spiritual drink, since they all drank from the spiritual rock that followed them as they went, and that rock was Christ. In spite of this, most of them failed to please God and their corpses littered the desert.

These things all happened as warnings for us, not to have the wicked lusts for forbidden things that they had. You must never complain: some of them did, and they were killed by the Destroyer.

All this happened to them as a warning, and it was written down to be a lesson for us who are living at the end of the age. The man who thinks he is safe must be careful that he does not fall.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt4:17

Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!
Repent, says the Lord,
for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

Gospel

Luke 13:1-9

'Leave the fig tree one more year'

Some people arrived and told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with that of their sacrifices. At this he said to them, 'Do you suppose these Galileans who suffered like that were greater sinners than any other Galileans? They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen on whom the tower at Siloam fell and killed them? Do you suppose that they were more guilty than all the other people living in Jerusalem? They were not, I tell you. No; but unless you repent you will all perish as they did.'

He told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it but found none. He said to the man who looked after the vineyard, "Look here, for three years now I have been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and finding none. Cut it down: why should it be taking up the ground?" "Sir," the man replied "leave it one more year and give me time to dig round it and manure it: it may bear fruit next year; if not, then you can cut it down."'

Communion Antiphon

The sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for her young:
by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are they who dwell in your house,
for ever singing your praise.

Sunday 11.15am Mass

CLEANING OUT THE CLUTTER

Lent is not something we do to make God change. It's something we do in response to God's love, to bring about change within ourselves. Think of it this way. If your garage is full of clutter, and you've just bought a shiny new car and you want to use the garage for its intended purpose (to shelter your car rather than your junk), then you have a job to do. You need to clean out the garage. Likewise, Lent is a time when we try to clean out the clutter in our hearts and minds and souls, to prepare ourselves for the joyful gift of new life, freely given to us through the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection.

Words that describe Lent — a time of silence, simplicity, meditation, humility, attentiveness — also describe contemplative prayer, and indeed, Lent does have a richly contemplative quality about it. It's a time of waiting with quiet joy for the blessings to come at Easter. The Lenten fast and almsgiving discipline, when done correctly, instil in us a sense of longing, if not literal hunger — an emptiness that represents our soul's deep longing for God. Contemplative/silent prayer also stresses the emptiness that exists in each person's soul, beneath the "noise" of our chatterbox minds and emotional hearts. "Be still and know that I am God," proclaims Psalm 46. But to find that stillness within, we need to empty ourselves.

The forty days of Lent symbolises the forty days Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness after his Baptism. It was a time of cleansing and prayer for him, and it preceded the launching of his public ministry. So Jesus's "Lent" was a time of deep inner transformation, through prayer and silence and fasting.

The "giving up" part of Lent is meant to be something significant enough that you notice the sacrifice, but not so huge that it becomes a source of spiritual pride ("Look at me, I gave up everything but bread and water for Lent; aren't I holy?"). It doesn't have to be food, although fasting from ice cream or alcoholic beverages can be excellent Lenten disciplines. But you could also fast from any type of pleasure, like social media, television, or gaming.

The fast is only part of your Lenten discipline, though. Traditionally, Lent is a time for almsgiving — giving money or other resources to those in need. In other words, Lent involves doing something extra as a response to God's love. And yes, giving to those in need is a great place to start. But Lent is also a great time to begin or renew a daily prayer practice (especially silent or contemplative prayer), Bible study or lectio divina, or giving time to a worthy cause. Like the Lenten fast, this "something extra" works best when it is a meaningful, but not overwhelming, commitment. Mighty oak trees grow from acorns, so let your Lenten commitments be small. God can use a small commitment in big ways.

Keep in mind that you don't have to do anything at all for Lent — God loves you regardless. But remember the new car and the cluttered garage. If you leave your garage messy, you can park your car on the street and no one will complain. But it's a less than ideal situation, and with just a little bit of effort you can have a much better arrangement. Likewise, your faith could truly be blessed by this simple 40-day discipline. Carl McColman

PARISH FINANCES

We preached on giving in October 2018 and as a result the number of Standing Orders went up by 31%, compared to the average of the previous 8 months. Although income has increased because of this, operating costs remain high and scope for reduction in costs is limited. Please consider increasing your giving by £1 per week. If everyone did this it would bring us closer to breaking even.

MASS INTENTION ENVELOPES

Available at the back of the Church. Print details and post through Clergy House letter box. Sunday 11:15 Mass is normally reserved for the Administrator’s or Bishop’s Intentions for the Parish or Diocese. It may not always be possible for Mass to be celebrated on your preferred date or at the Cathedral itself.
